Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been an exciting week for Y6 as they became evacuees and travelled from town to country on a steam train, just like evacuees during WWII. Dressed in costume, complete with their identity card and gas mask box. They quickly learned that being a child during the war was very different. 6E also led assembly on Wednesday linked to their Discovery Unit called 'Bombed Out'. The children wrote the assembly themselves and created their own props. They shared their learning and sang wartime songs. Thank you for sharing your learning 6E.

Whereas, Finley Jackson, Olivia Brown, Olivia Stevens and Tommy-Lee Harris have remained in the current day. Our new A Star Sheriffs headed out on Wednesday, alongside Mrs Rich, to be trained in their new role. They are now fully qualified experts and will be leading us all in learning how to stay safe around roads. They would also like me to mention that International Walk to School Month is in on the horizon, beginning on October 1st. This is an opportunity for children to join hundreds of thousands of pupils across the globe celebrating the walk to school.

On Monday, there was the first rehearsal for Christmas at the Movies (Yes I really did write Christmas in the September Newsletter!). James Madison from Forest Arts worked with our children to teach them his new song that he has written and composed - it is tricky! But our children will soon master it!

Thank you to all our parents and families who supported our Macmillan Coffee Afternoon led by Mrs Jones and Miss Price, we hope you enjoyed a delicious piece of cake whilst supporting a very worthwhile charity.

Continuing the theme of charity; We will be celebrating Harvest Festival on Tuesday and will take time out to remember children and families, in our Local Area and across the world, who aren't as fortunate as many of our children. Any tins or produce kindly donated by our families will be displayed during the special assembly and then donated to the local food bank to help families who need a little extra help.

A quick reminder: Sheets for parents to sign up for Parent Consultation appointments will be in the entrance foyer from Monday.

I'm not sure whether to dig out my hat and gloves or just pull on a woolly jumper, but with the world turning golden it is the perfect time for a stomp in Nature. Mrs Newton

5 Stars for the kitchen!

We had an unexpected visit from The Food Standards Agency and without hesitation, our kitchens were awarded 5 stars, top of the scale! The Inspector commented that she wished all places were like ours.

Very well done to Mrs Mason and our dedicated team.

This week, we have been discussing how we can protect our world in order to keep the wildlife safe.

The use of plastic and its damaging effects was raised by our children.

Should we give half of Earth to wildlife?

Congratulations to The Stars Of The Week!

Class	Name	Reason
RE	Eadee Southall	Fantastic recall of our story The Very Hungry Caterpillar – almost word perfect- and then applying your learning in the art lab with a beautifully painted caterpillar.
RJ	Isaac Julie	A wonderful retell of The Very Hungry Caterpillar – Isaac drew a super story map and used this to tell us the story- well done!
1P	Rhys Dawson	Trying really hard in maths. Rhys is an expert with his 2 times tables. He always has his hand up to answer questions. Well done you!
1H	Frankie Follows	For confidently being able to identify nouns from a given picture. Frankie was then able to use the nouns he had found in a sentence whilst using his writing checklist to ensure he had everything in his sentence!
2B	Tyler Craddock	For working hard to improve his handwriting. Tyler tried hard all week to improve his handwriting in not only his English book but all his other work books too. Well done – keep it up!
2L	Ruby-Mai Banks	Always being ready to learn, the right attitude and for always doing the right thing
3R	Kyer –Jae Wright	A super setting description using adjectives, conjunctions and PAD openers. Well done Kyer.
3CG	Demi-Leigh Collins	For writing a super character profile of Tyrannosaurus Drip. Demi used super adjectives and she explained her ideas too. Well done Demi.
4N	Grace Froggatt	Super sentences about our setting using ENP (Expanded Noun phrases) and prepositional phrases. Keep this up !
4G	Alfie Bowyer	A super prediction of what will happen to the object in our new text Well done!
5C	Ashley Smith	Thinking of excellent ideas for his diary entry. Ashley worked hard to ensure his diary was his best work. I am very impressed Ashley –keep up the good work.
5M	Isaac Kairo	Writing a fantastic diary entry in the style of Diary of a Wimpy Kid. You were able to write from the perspective of Rhodopis. Well done!
6P	Ethan Baker	Always giving 100% even when he finds the challenge difficult. Ethan puts on a smile and pushes himself that little bit further. Great strength indeed!
6E	Lottie Corfield	Creating a super gas mask and then supporting her peers to create theirs, fantastic team work Lottie - you are a star!
